AAUW invites you to join the IUP Homecoming Parade. October 2, 10:00 a.m. "8-1/2 Decades" with AAUW-IC.

COME ON OUT! We are again participating in the 2021 Homecoming Parade, themed "Decades," on Saturday, October 2, beginning at 10 a.m. Our AAUW Indiana Branch was founded in 1936 and so we will be representing our "8-1/2 Decades" to celebrate our 85 years of advancing our mission of "equity for women and girls, with the priority of removing persisting bias in America due to gender, economics, race and ethnicity.

DRESS CODE – We encourage you to dress in 1936 regalia – think Eleanor Roosevelt & saddle shoes. WE’LL

HAVE SIGNS - to carry supporting AAUW issues: "Women Choose AAUW" "Women Choose Wage Equity" "Women Choose Health Care Equity" "Women Choose Title IX Equity"

OUR NEXT GENERAL MEETING: Wednesday, October 13th, 7:00 pm. "Advocacy against Violence" Audia Boyles, Speaker. In Breezedale, IUP's Alumni Center.

More people need to become advocates against violence, especially as this violence impacts women and children. Audia Boyles, executive director since 2013 of the Alice Paul House, Indiana County's comprehensive victim service organization. She worked to establish funding for a new facility for the organization, which opened last November. Her job at APH is focused on keeping women and families healthy and safe, both physically and emotionally. She has held positions with the Department of Corrections and the Pennsylvania Board of Probation and Parole, and later served as director of administration at Cresson Secure Treatment Unit. Boyles has a bachelor of arts degree in criminology and a master of arts in industrial labor relations/human resources from Indiana University of Pennsylvania.
